

Mirror Reporter Oliver Holt Visits Weihsien Camp

Issue Date: Aug 6, 2008 Source: Weifang Sui Shude

On August 6, 2008, Oliver Holt, senior journalist of British newspaper The Mirror, came to Weifang and visited Weihsien Camp just on the second day after arrived in China with the 300-people British delegation to the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing.

Mr Oliver Holt visited the Weihsien Camp Exhibition House, the Weihsien Camp site, the Ledao Square, as well as the monument for Eric Liddell, gold-medalist of the 400-metre race at the 1924 Olympic game in Paris, who died of illness in the "concentration camp" as an internee of Japanese. Mr. Oliver Holt took a lot of precious photos, made a lot of notes, and had a good understood of the life of a British Olympic champion in China.

It is informed that The Mirror newspaper was firstly established in 1903, name changed as Daily Mirror in 1985. As an influential newspaper, it is a popular national daily paper with news published of widely credit on reliability and authority. (Words and Photo: Sui Shude)